Dear M [REDACTED]:

On September 13, 2016 you sent via electronic mail a request for the Board of Police Commissioners to investigate an incident which occurred on November 23, 2015 involving private security personnel contracted to the Hollywood Business Improvement District (BID). This incident involved the arrest of Mr. Leon Jones by BID private security personnel in which you allege that the force utilized by the private security personnel was not reasonable.

I assigned this investigation to Commission Investigation Division to investigate this matter to determine if there were any violations of law by the private security personnel. The conclusion of the investigation determined that no violations of law occurred or other improper behavior on the part of the private security personnel or Los Angeles Police Department police officers.

Thank you for bringing this matter to my attention. This concludes the matter and no further action will be taken.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD M. TEFANK, Executive Director
Board of Police Commissioners
