Walking into the condo to see a gorgeous view of the Hollywood Hills was one of many awesome things about my stay. Mart was super helpful in making sure I had everything I needed when I arrived. Overall he's an awesome host.

Mart was the best host. He ensured I had a smooth check in. He was also very responsive and communicative. The Unit and building are both pristine, brand new and sleek. Amazing view of the Hollywood Sign as well. I will definitely come back and I highly recommend!

This was my first time using airbnb and mart made it really easy! The unit had an amazing view and location. The decoration looked exactly as the pictures and mart was a great host leaving everything we needed in the unit. Everything was super clean and the communication with mart was really immediate and always received a response from him. Everyone in the building was really friendly and the rooftop is basically amazing! Over all mart and his unit made of our trip a better experience :).

A lovely apartment in Hollywood, new rental building, right across the street from Emerson College Los Angeles. Quiet, high modern interior, tasteful decoration, washer and dryer, comfortable bed. Mart contacted before we thought about it on how to get key, where is the wireless code, etc. Saw him once and had a lovely conversation. We plan to stay here again.

Mart was an amazing host. I booked the review hours before arriving and everything was ready. He assisted with any needs I had at the location. The property was very nice and conveniently located in hollywood. The building is only months old so you can't get any newer than that. The security at the building is also a plus as I am a female and it feels safe when you know that you must check in. All in all it was an amazing stay!
