Hi Steve,

I ran your request up the chain ...

We don't actually get POST reimbursement because reimbursement is only for sworn. HOWEVER, the chief did approve you going to the class. There is a class in September in Simi Valley (but I'm guessing the dates might not work for you?) or you can go to the San Diego class but you won't get hotel reimbursement.

Let me know

There is a BATI Investigative Interview and interrogation class in San Diego on 8-24-15 through 8-28-15. Its POST reimbursable. I picked those dates because I would be able to take the time off from my main job. I realize this may be a ridiculous request so yoOu won't hurt my feelings if you respond with "Are you nuts". I could use the refresher though.
