Dear Ms. Schatz,

Thank you very much for your White Paper on homelessness shared with our Chief of Staff Ana Guerrero on November 20, 2015.

I am writing this email to invite you and a guest (staff member or board member) to an intimate Round Table discussion on Monday, December 14, 2015 at 2:45 in the Press Room on the 3rd floor of City Hall. This meeting is invite-only and intentionally small to learn and discuss strategies for BIDS that are addressing homelessness in way one or another so that we can include the City's plan is inclusive of this perspective.

As you know, Mayor Garcetti is very committed to working with CCA and the other BIDS to develop homelessness policies and practices that address homelessness without unintentional harm to our business community. In the long run, we need businesses to provide pathways out of poverty through self-sustaining wages and pride in individual ability and skills.

We hope that you will be able to join us. If so, can you please confirm by close of business tomorrow, Friday, December 11th. Also if you need parking, please send your car model and license plate number and I will be happy to arrange for you.

Thank you again for your thoughtful engagement on this matter.

Sincerely,

Alisa Orduna

Yes, of course. The Mayor himself will be hosting and staffed by William Chun from the Mayor's Office of Economic Development and I and possibly Greg Spiegel will also be present.

Good Morning Carol,

We intentionally are hosting a small sampling of BIDS from across the region. I am just waiting for a contact at one of the SFV organizations. In the meantime, in addition to CCA, the following are confirmed:

Downtown Industrial (Central City East)
San Pedro Historic Waterfront
Fashion District
Central Hollywood Coalition
Chinatown
Leimert Park

We look forward to hosting you on Monday!

Warm regards,

Alisa

P.S. - Did you need parking arrangements?
