10. PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD

David Leder

Mr. Leder commented on the private police working for the Hollywood Business Improvement District. He stated that private police officers take suspects to their own station before taking them to the police station. He also commented on how the Hollywood Community Police Advisory Board does not have a fixed time and place for their meetings and how the Board is being controlled by the Chamber of Commerce.

Commissioner Chaleff then instructed Executive Director Joe Gunn to monitor the Hollywood Business Improvement District private patrol.

Tut Hayes

Mr. Hayes commented on the shopping cart law.
