Dear Kerry,

That would be lovely.

Do you have any idea whether you'll be able to use Dropbox for future installments of that request? If not, can you please let me know before you purchase any more USB drives, as you're paying more than 100% over fair market value for them.

Thanks so much for your help.

[REDACTED] by Thursday, I will have for you a flash drive prepared with a batch of records (the arrest reports and officer daily logs) from 2007, in response to your request below. Since you are coming in to review the notebooks of meeting minutes, do you want to pick up those records at that time?

Sincerely,

Kerry Morrison
